Where Are They Now?

Shawna (Wartner) Bowshot (Class of 1999). In the contracting squadron at Travis AFB, California, supporting the tactical and strategic airlift C-5's and KC-10's, as well as all other customers on Travis AFB. Coaches children in gymnastics at the Youth Center (along with Kristi (Delcour) Contardo).

Capt. David Cobb (Class of 1995). Flying F-16's out of Eielson AFB, Alaska

2nd Lt. Kristi (Delcour) Contardo (Class of 2001). 60th CES Section Commander at Travis AFB, California. Volunteers in local youth center gymnastics program. Married to 2nd Lt. Mike Contardo (former AFA lacrosse player).

Capt. Brock DeVos (Class of 1995). At the Pentagon on the Air Staff as Chief, Domestic Civil Aviation Policy

Dr Shannon Faber (Class of 1997). In second year of emergency medicine residency at Wilford Hall Medical Center in San Antonio, Texas. Will complete residency in 2004.

George Frushour (Class of 1967). Deputy and the Plan/Programs Officer for the Command Representative for Missile Defense for Alaskan Command in Anchorage, Alaska.

1st Lt. Shelly Hooten (Class of 2000). Chief, Future Defense Meteorological Satellite Program Spacecraft at Los Angeles AFB, CA. “I ensure that our future spacecraft are ready for launch. Currently, I make sure our satellites are integrated properly onto the Air Force's new booster, the Evolved Expendable Launch Vehicle. I work with various engineers to ensure all mechanical, electrical, and thermal interfaces are properly designed for the launch environment.”

Dr. Joel Jenne (Class of 1995). Due to finish residency in orthopaedic surgery in Orlando, Florida. Hopes to train further in orthopaedic spine surgery. If approved he will probably end up in San Antonio, Texas for the remainder of his Air Force career.

2nd Lt. Matt Kenkel (Class of 2002). In UPT at Moody AFB, Georgia. Just getting starting flying the new T-6. Says that 2nd Lts are not allowed to know much more than that.

Capt. Meghan McCann (Class of 1996). Assistant Coach 1996-97. KC-135 co-pilot (upgrading to aircraft commander) at Offutt AFB, Nebraska. Treaty verification mission. Also coaching gymnastics at the Sokol in Omaha.

Joel Miller (Class of 1992). Currently flying for SkyWest Airlines and the AF Reserves out of Travis AFB and working part time at TRW as a systems engineer. Has orders back to USAFA (in March 2003) to teach astronautical engineering and fly the Otter.

Col. (Ret) Roy Miller (Class of 1967). Director of Corporate and Foundation Development for Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. Retired in 1997 after serving five years active duty and 25 years in the Air Force Reserve. Living in Phoenix, Arizona.

Bob Mondy (Class of 1984). Quality Engineer at SMC Corporation of America (manufacturing pneumatics products). Also converting from tanker navigator in the reserves to a full time admission liaison officer for AFA and ROTC. Just returned from a 10 month activation (from Grissom AFB) for Enduring Freedom in August. Married to Jenny with two sons.

Mike Otomo (Class of 1979). Captain for American Airlines in the Boeing 757 and 767. Flies international routes out of Miami. Living in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Capt. Seung Paik (Class of 1993). Teaching Economics at USAFA and taking care of the men’s gymnastics team as our Officer Representative.

Col. Gordon H. (Hal) Quanbeck, USAFR (Class of 1974). 10,000+ flying hours, 3000 in the F-4 and F-16. Currently the Deputy Director for the Virtual Information Center, HQ USCINCPAC and a 757 Captain for Northwest Airlines based in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Sue (Weiland) Robertson (Class of 1986). Married a Scotsman and lives in the United Kingdom. A chartered electrical engineer working for Black & Veatch as a Senior Electrical Engineer and Project Manager.

Randy Schamberger (Class of 1962). Retired for real in July 1990 (Florida) and now tennis is his full time sport and leisure activity.

Sue (Bizzelle) Schlacter (Class of 1990). Air Force Selection Board Secretariat as the Senior Recorder at the Air Force Personnel Center at Randolph AFB, Texas.

Capt. Chad Silva (Class of 1997). F-16 pilot in 4th Fighter Squadron at Hill AFB, Utah.

Capt. Jason Smith (Class of 1999). C-5 pilot and executive officer for the 21st Airlift Squadron, Travis AFB, California. Married to Angela.

Col Mike Spencer (Class of 1981). Division Chief, UN & Multilateral Affairs - formulating policy relating to detainees as it applies to the War on Terrorism, freedom of navigation (China P-3 incident), etc.

2nd Lt. Bethany Stott (Class of 2002). Student at Harvard’s Kennedy School of Government working toward Masters in public policy before becoming an acquisitions officer.

Where Are They Now?

Lt. Col Preston Thompson (Class of 1982). F-16 pilot and Squadron Commander of the 428th Fighter Squadron at Cannon AFB, New Mexico. The 428th is a hybrid squadron owned and paid for by the Republic of Singapore.

Capt. Mark Wolfe (Class of 1997). F-15 pilot now stationed at Tyndall AFB, Florida as an instructor pilot.

2003 AFA Gymnastics Teams

![Image of the 2003 AFA Gymnastics Team]