RATTLER FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Albert Chester II

2007 FAMU Grid Preview

A look at the 2007 Rattler Football Team as the third year of the Rubin Carter Era looms

CAPSULE PREVIEW

Florida A&M University will play its' 102nd season of varsity football this fall and as always, expectations will be high for this storied program, which will be contending for the 2007 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference title.....

The past two seasons under Coach Rubin Carter, the Rattlers have made great strides in league play, finishing 5-3 in each of the past two years in league play - their only setbacks coming at the hands of Hampton, South Carolina State and Delaware State - the trio they must conquer to regain supremacy in the MEAC.....

Offensively, senior QB Albert Chester II returns as a two-year starter to lead the Rattler offensive attack. In 2006, Chester passed for (164 of 264 passes) 1,986 yards, tossing 18 scoring passes, while rushing for 320 yards and four more scores..... Senior running back Anthony Edwards (482 yards, 5 TDs) and sophomore Demitric Henry (414 yards, 2 TDs) head the candidates poised to lead a resurgent running attack, while the senior trio of Willie Hayward (49 catches, 674 yards, 5 TDs), Derek Williams (29 catches, 269 yards, 2 TDs) and Ronald Wright (25 grabs, 410 yards, 3 TDs) will step into the receiving leadership void left by graduating Roosevelt Kiser. Junior center Stephen Brazzle will anchor an offensive line which lost several key pieces including left tackle Dan Parrish....

Defensively, senior end Tyrone McGriff along with sophomore tackles Cameron Houston and Demetrius Lane anchor the defensive front, while All-MEAC middle line-backer Vernon Wilder (89 tackles) returns for his junior season, flanked by Dannel Sheppard, the MEAC leader in tackles for loss (14.5) and Michael McMillan at the outside spots.... Junior safety Jason Beach, who had four interceptions and 70 tackles en route to an All-MEAC team berth, returns to head a secondary which features budding star corners in Michael Creary and Gregory Clark....

All-America and All-MEAC senior kicker Wesley Taylor will be expected to turn in a command performance in 2007, after a stellar effort in 2006, which netted a 41.3 punting average, tops in the MEAC, along with a team-high 69 points on 14 (of 22) field goals and 27 (of 29) PATs....

Schedule-wise, the Rattlers will have no breaks in their 2007 lineup, which is highlighted by the return of Southern University for the season opener in September, followed by Delaware State, Howard and Tennessee State all in the first month.... Road tilts at South Carolina State (Oct. 13) and three-time defending champ Hampton (Nov. 10) loom as red letter dates, as does the season-ending Walt Disney World Florida Classic against Bethune-Cookman, in Orlando (Nov. 17).

2007 FAMU Column Notes

Rattlers Out To Crash MEAC Party:

Two years into the Rubin Carter Era, the Florida A&M Football Program now appears poised to make the next step - vaulting back into the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference's upper echelon....

Of course to do that, FAMU must crack the MEAC's Big Three - three-time defending champion Hampton and perennial contenders South Carolina State and Delaware State...

With back-to-back 5-3 conference finishes under Carter in 2005 and 2006, the Rattlers have solidified their standing as a perennial contender.... FAMU has lost its' last two to Hampton and Delaware State and has dropped three straight to South Carolina State, so the stage is set for the Rattlers to aim high and crash the MEAC party in 2007.....

The two schools had played almost annually from the early 1940s to 2001, when the contract was allowed to expire...

The perennial contenders for the Southwestern Athletic Conference (SWAC) crown will open the season for the Rattlers, which also faces MEAC heavyweight Delaware State (Sept. 8), a Sept. 29 showdown in Atlanta against resurgent Tennessee State, plus critical road battles at South Carolina State (Oct. 13) and Hampton (Nov. 10)....

Carter eyes year three of his regime: Head coach

Rubin Carter begins his third year as head coach of the Rattlers with eyes on taking the program into the upper level of the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference and return to the NCAA playoffs..... The University of Miami graduate has piloted the Rattlers to a 13-9 record (6-5, 7-4) the past two seasons, with a pair of 5-3 conference marks in 2005 and 2006, good for fourth place finishes in both campaigns...

In the offseason, he continued his quest to build the Rattler program through high school recruiting, bringing in a bumper crop of 27 prospects, loading up on defensive players, while adding a quarterback and some crucial young stock for the offense and special teams.... Considering that over a dozen of his recruits from 2006 were pressed into starting roles last season, it appears that Carter's eye for talent is a good one, which bodes well for the Rattlers in the immediate future...

Chester establishes hold on starting role:

Albert Chester has more than come into his own as the Rattler quarterback, putting his own unique stamp on the position....

After an impressive finishing stretch in 2005, when he led the Rattlers to five wins in their final six games as a sophomore, Chester impressed everyone even more in 2006 by passing for 1,986 yards and 18 TDs, completing 62.1 percent of his passes (164 of 264).... He also rushed for 320 yards and four (4) more TDs.... The mentally-tough youngster has grown into a formidable performer, earning second-team All-MEAC honors last year and pre-season first-team All-MEAC notices after leading the league in passing (144.0) and total offense (230.6) a year ago.... Son of former All-America and three-time MVP QB Albert Chester Sr. (1975-78), the younger Chester has rushed for 569 yards and seven (7) TDs in his career, while passing for 2,783 yards and 22 TDs, completing 63.1 percent of his passes....

RAC Boys 2007 poised for big year: Veterans will hold court at the wide receiver slots which bodes well for quarterback Al Chester and his field general competitors... The senior trio of Willie Hayward, the lanky 6-4, 190-pound high jump specialist, along with Derek Williams (5-11, 180) and Ronald Wright (6-0, 202) are the top three returning receivers from a year ago, who will try to make up for the loss of the departed Roosevelt Kiser (63 catches, 647 yards, five TDs).... Sophomore Javares Knight and a pair of true freshmen in Orion Ponder and Jonathan Sanders will figure into the receiver mix along with tight ends Taj Jenkins (6-4, 225, So.) and freshman Terrence Pittman (6-5, 210)....

Delancy, Brazzle, Collins anchor offensive line:

Despite the loss of left tackle Dan Parrish to the NFL (Jacksonville camp) and left guard Lenard Black, don't weep for the 2007 offensive line, as the trio of senior tackle Justin Delancy (6-2, 238), redshirt sophomore guard Anthony Collins (6-3, 355) and junior center Steve Brazzle (6-4, 328) should return to play the role of anchormen for the Rattler front five.... The offensive line will likely see plenty of new faces including five freshmen and three sophomores in the mix for the five starting spots....

Edwards, Henry ground game double act: Senior power back Anthony Edwards and rising sophomore Demitric Henry are the two-headed monster that the Rattlers hope will put the punch back in their running game.... Both players took turns showing flashes in 2006, but together at season's end they looked like a potentially deadly combination.... Edwards, a 212-pound bruiser, with swivel hips and open field speed, led the club with 482 yards rushing and five (5) TDs on 123 carries.... Henry, 175-pound yearling in 2006, had 414 yards on just 70 carries, rushing for 149 yards in his first-ever collegiate start against Norfolk State, followed three weeks later with a 101-yard effort against North Carolina A&T....

McGriff looking for big senior campaign:

Senior end Tyrone McGriff missed four games last season due to injuries, but finished 2006 with his typical flourish, savaging Bethune-Cookman in the season finale with six tackles, two for loss, one sack and a recovered fumble.... The lightning fast end, who may find a pro future at linebacker or safety, comes into his final collegiate campaign with 155 total tackles (71 solos), 23 tackles for loss and 8.5 sacks in three seasons.... The versatile youngster has played end, tackle and linebacker during his career.... His father was the late All-America guard Tyrone McGriff, Sr., who played from 1976-79, and was enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame in 1996....

Defense should be older, better in 2007:

After losing nine starters from the 2005 defense, the outlook for the 2006 edition was anything but a sure thing.... But a funny thing happened on the way to a 7-4 record, the Rattlers found some potential future stars out of the 2006 recruiting class and could be poised to field one of the nation's more formidable units before long.... The senior quartet of ends Tyrone McGriff and Carlos Rolle, linebacker Dannel Shepard and defensive back Ernest Williams will provide leadership along with junior linebacker Vernon Wilder, the club's tackle leader from a year ago and junior safety Jason Beach, the team leader in pass interceptions.... Sophomore tackles Demetris Lane and Cameron Houston started as freshmen last season, as did redshirt sophomore linebacker Michael McMillan and true

Coach Billy Joe joins College Hall of Fame:

Former Rattler coach William "Billy" Joe was enshrined in the prestigious College Football Hall of Fame, July 21....

The Villanova grad who coached 11 seasons at FAMU (86-46 from 1994 to 2004), finished his 31-year head coaching career with 237 victories - the second-highest total in Black College history behind the late Eddie Robinson (408) of Grambling State.... Joe won six Black College National titles in his career, including the 1998 crown while at FAMU.... He took the Rattlers to seven straight postseason appearances between 1995 and 2001, producing five Black College Players of the Year.... That club featured the nation's top scoring, passing and total offensive club, powered by quarterback Pat Bonner (4,100 yards, 42 TDs) and a 1,000-yard receiving duo in Jacquay Nunnally and Cainon Lamb....

1967: Rattlers go 8-2-0.

1977: FAMU's last defeated team (11-0), winner of Black College National title.

1987: Rattlers go 5-5-1 in second year under Ken Riley.

1997: Rattlers go 9-3-0; win final five games to earn at-large NCAA playoff berth.

2007: Stay Tuned.....

2007 - A Golden Year Already:

Florida A&M will celebrate two golden anniversaries this season - for the 1957 National Championship Team and for venerable Bragg Memorial Stadium.

• The 1957 Rattler Football Team, which will be celebrated during the annual Toast To The Champions FAMU Football Reunion, September 14-15, had a number of notable footballers including John D. Glover, a Miami native who would eventually become the highest-ranking African American in the FBI in the 1980s, as Associate Director....

The Rattlers pounded the opposition 343-41, recording four shutouts and allowing more than six points in a game once, in a 27-21 Orange Blossom Classic win over Maryland State (now Maryland-Eastern Shore).... The nucleus of this group would fuel two other national titles in 1959 (10-0) and 1961 (10-0)....

• Bragg Memorial Stadium, in its' current incarnation, was completed for play in 1957, just in time to serve as home for the first of eight national championship teams....

Forty (40) of the 49 Rattler squads to call Bragg home have turned in winning seasons... The original facility seated 10,700 fans and bleacher seats increased the capacity to 13,200... After renovations were completed in 1981, the venue was expanded to its' current capacity of 25,500...
