One of The University of Texas' most cherished athletics traditions is the Longhorn Hall of Honor. The governing body, the Longhorn Hall of Honor Council, is made up exclusively of men who have lettered at The University of Texas. The Council is in charge of all arrangements for the vote of lettermen and for the installation banquet.

Mounted silver scrolls, which carry the announcement that they are presented ‘In recognition of those qualities that brought credit and renown to The University of Texas,’ are presented to the honorees. In addition, a large portrait of each honoree is hung in the athletic department on the second floor of Bellmont Hall.
